The Club is a premium shop for genuine sneakers, street clothing, and accessories. Founder Damany Weir saw a gap in the market and created the Flight Club concept in 2005. Since then, it has evolved into a lively and popular marketplace.

This article researches if Flight Club is legit, how it works, and if the sneaker website delivers.

FLIGHT CLUB PRODUCT AUTHENTICATION

Flight Club is a ship-to-verify and consignment premium site. In other words, it's a platform to source products from independent sellers. Trained specialists authenticate and verify all shoes at brick-and-mortar sites in New York, Los Angeles, and Miami.

People are willing to pay more because all goods are

People are willing to pay more because all goods are guaranteed authentic. It's a guarantee of safety and authenticity.

A dedicated team ensures all goods sold are 100% genuine, so Flight Club only sells authentic sneakers.

HOW DOES FLIGHT CLUB WORK?

Flight Club sells new products sourced through retail channels and second-market goods using the online consignment platform model (and check out our article on some of the best online consignment stores). Sellers send in their shoes, and Flight Club verifies the sneakers before marketing them online or in one of three stores until they sell or are returned to the seller.

FROM A SELLER'S POINT OF VIEW

A seller first opens an account on the website. Next, you load the sneakers you are selling. Trained staff work with sellers to determine sale prices using authenticity, shoe condition, rarity, and size availability. Rare and out-of-stock items are more expensive.

After your shoes sell, you can choose to be paid via PayPal or through a bank transfer.

Flight Club charges a commission fee of 9.5% plus a $5 seller fee. And when you want to get paid, there is an additional 2.9% cash-out fee.

If you want to complement your sneakers with some fresh designer streetwear and accessories, this is the place to go. However, the site's main emphasis is on selling sneakers.

A unique selling point for Flight Club is the “Price Drop” section. Here you can check out the latest sought-after sneakers available at a lower price for a limited period.

PRE-PURCHASE INFORMATION

Your first step to buying fabulous sneakers is to create an account. Know your shoe size – check the manufacturer's guidelines.

All orders are subject to a fraud review. This step can delay processing. You may have to provide additional information to verify your purchase.

FLIGHT CLUB PURCHASER PROTECTION

The Club gives buyers a guarantee that the sneakers they purchase are authentic and in good condition. Every pair of sneakers is checked and verified by experts.

TIME TAKEN TO PROCESS A FLIGHT CLUB ORDER

Flight Club takes about 1 to 4 business days to process an order. After your order is processed, it will be shipped and arrive within 5 to 9 business days. The time taken depends on the shipping method.

To receive your order faster, select "Fastest To You" shipping at checkout. Then your order will arrive within five business days. Fast shipping costs $25.00.

FLIGHT CLUB DELIVERY POLICY

The seller's policy is to ship from a location within the country/region referenced in your seller account.

For example, if your return address is located within the US, your package will come from the US. Flight Club accepts no liability for customs fees or lost, missing, or damaged items.

Flight Club is not responsible for items not shipped in compliance with the guidelines above, including items that are sent using the incorrect prepaid shipping label.

The site currently ships DDU (Delivered Duties Unpaid) for most non-US deliveries. This means that the carrier collects duties and taxes at delivery time. As a customer, you are responsible for paying all duties and taxes.

FLIGHT CLUB RETURN AND REFUND POLICY

Only pre-owned sneakers get sold on consignment. New items can be returned and refunded if they have their hang tag and have not been worn.

The disadvantage of the consignment method is that these goods can't be returned or refunded.

Dan Gilbert, Josh Luber, Greg Schwartz, and Chris Kaufman created StockX in Detroit in 2015. StockX was established as a secondary marketplace for sneakerheads to buy and sell authentic sneakers. Now they also sell luxury handbags, watches, and electronics. GOAT

GOAT is a reliable sneaker marketplace for sneakerheads. If you are wondering "is GOAT legit," then check out our article which will tell you all about it.

The concept for GOAT originated when one of the founders, Daishin Sugano, bought a retro pair of Air Jordan 5 Grapes, which were fake.

He was unhappy that he could not get a refund due to eBay's return policy. It was clear to him that fake sneakers were easily available, and numerous people had bought fakes instead of genuine products.

So he built up the world's most legitimate sneaker retail space. GOAT may be a good choice if you are looking for a legit and trustworthy source for sneakers.

GOAT's policy is to ensure that all sneakers sold on the platform are checked to be authentic. No fake shoes are sold on GOAT.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

CAN I WITHDRAW MY SNEAKERS BEFORE THEY ARE SOLD?

Yes, you can. Select "Remove Listing" for the item you'd like to withdraw. You pay a retrieval fee to cover shipping costs.

In the United States, the fee for retrieving an item is $33. This payment covers the cost of an inbound shipping label provided by Flight Club, as well as the cost of shipping the item back to you.

If you are not US-based, retrieval fees vary. First, the retrieval fee is deducted from your seller account balance. If the funds in your account are insufficient, the fee can be paid via American Express, Visa, Mastercard, Discover, China UnionPay, JCB, Diners Club, or Paypal.
